

James T. Christy, J.D.
Wealth Advisor
Northwest Financial Group

Jim Christy is an independent wealth management advisor for Northwest Financial Group, a subsidiary of Northwest Financial LLC. Through his affiliation with LPL Financial, the nation's largest independent broker-dealer,¹ Jim provides a comprehensive range of financial and investment planning services to individuals and business clients, including retirement planning, estate and wealth transfer planning, insurance and liability protection planning, and tax-efficient investment planning.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Christy served as a senior executive for two Fortune 500 companies. He was vice president, government relations, in charge of the Washington office of TRW Inc., and senior vice president at PhRMA, the trade association of the U.S. pharmaceutical industry. He also served seven years on Capital Hill in senior staff positions in the U.S. House of Representatives, including as Counsel to the House Committee on Energy & Commerce. He also served as Counsel to the Secretary of the Interior in the Reagan Administration.

Jim holds an undergraduate degree in business administration from the University of Cincinnati, and a law degree from the University of Cincinnati College of Law. He has also done post-graduate work at both George Washington University and Harvard University.

In 2009, Jim was the #3 Financial Institution Services advisor nationally in Individual Advisory Production with LPL Financial. In 2008, he completed the year at #4 nationally.²

In these turbulent times, Mr. Christy brings nearly four decades of experience in law, government, investment and wealth management to bear for his clients, helping them to identify and reach their financial goals and objectives.
