MEET RUTH.

A TRUSTED MEMBER OF YOUR NWFA WEALTH MANAGEMENT TEAM.

Ruth Adsit, CFP®, CRPC®, joined Northwest Financial Advisors (NWFA) in early 2017. As an Associate Financial Advisor on the Christy wealth management team, Ruth works diligently to uncover and understand our clients' needs and aspirations in order to offer appropriate and worthwhile financial solutions.

Prior to joining NWFA, Ruth worked as a Financial Services Advisor for Bank of America Merrill Lynch, as well as a Financial Advisor and Specialized Investment Services Representative for USAA. She began her financial services career as an Associate Financial Representative for Northwestern Mutual.

Ruth's experience serving clients' investment and retirement planning needs is backed by CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification and Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor designations. She also holds a Life and Variable Annuity license and Series 6, 63, 65 and 7 licenses*. Ruth graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Management from San Diego Christian College.

Ruth lives in the local Herndon community and enjoys spending time with her family, especially attending her son's baseball games and robotics competitions.
